VISION EXPO
2026
Orlando

From the Education Planning Committee Chair

How often do you find yourself quoting philosophers, poets, musicians, movie lines or just some random person who made a great social media post? I for one, do it all the time and without even realizing these quotes have become part of my lexicon. "So, you are saying there is a chance?" It can become amusing when we credit a quotation to the wrong person or flat out miss the meaning. One that is most often used, "The definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again expecting different results" is credited to Albert Einstein. Truth be told, scholars don't believe he said it, yet the quotation is relevant to our profession and Vision Expo.

Our profession is like a rolling stone, moss does not collect on those remember, in constant flux and still moving with the current. This is also what makes Vision Expo the premiere meeting place for the ophthalmic community - change. John Kennedy said "For time and the world do not stand still. Change is the law of life.", and being able to adapt to those changes has continued to strengthen our communal bond. However, change does not necessarily mean unfamiliar or complete disintegration of what is great about Vision Expo. The name exposition alone represents, a large public exhibition of art and goods, all centered about the miraculous organ that provides vision. The art can be found in the evolving education that is provided over the four days, from new treatment and diagnostic options, to maneuvering the ever unfolding business of our profession; as well as the unique optical and surgical options that are delivered on a daily basis to our patients. The goods are presented in, arguably, the most exciting and expansive exhibit hall for any meeting. For within these walls education is imparted from center stage or supporters who understand our patients' needs. At Vision Expo life is truly like a box of chocolates, you never know what you will get but who cares because you know it will be good!

Now I understand it is always warm to relish in the ways of our past, it is comfortable, but that is also naive of us to not understand that our profession and our patients' needs are evolutionary. Vision Expo is continuing to evolve with our profession, and this meeting will provide you even more tools, insights and opportunities for you to practice confidently at the highest level. And much like the quote that I can assure, was maybe, spoken by Einstein, gravitation cannot be held responsible for people falling in love; for those that love our profession, community and love a great meeting, then I will see you all in Orlando because it is not just gravity that makes you love Vision Expo.

JEANETTE, real patient with DB

LOOK at the
LIDS

How often do you see Demodex blepharitis (DB) in your practice?

DB is more common and damaging than you may think – and it can even end up exacerbating ocular diseases such as meibomian gland disease (MGD) and dry eye disease.¹⁻⁵

DB overlaps with the following patient groups^{2,*}:

Don't let DB turn into a bigger problem: LOOK AT THE LIDS^{2,3}

Ask patients to look down
Collarettes can be missed when patients look straight on during a slit lamp exam

Check for collarettes
Waxy, cylindrical buildup at the base of the eyelid

Diagnose
Even 1 collarette means an infestation of Demodex mites

Check every eyelid, every time.

*STUDY DESIGN: A retrospective chart review for DB by 7 investigators at 6 eye care clinics of the case records of patients (N=1032) who underwent a slit lamp examination, regardless of chief complaint.
